Hi there!

What a year it has been!

From the sudden impact of COVID-19 to a resurgence of the Black Lives Matter Movement, we have had to become innovative on how to come together and demand direct action. We know that one of the most powerful ways to affect change is by voting, especially in local elections. My goal is to ensure that your opinions are reflected on the issues that matter to you most. You are a very important and valued member of our community! I want you to know and believe with conviction -- your voice matters.

The 2020 First Time Voter Guide is designed to help you become the most confident voter you can be. That means: knowing which candidates and issues will be on the ballot and where you can go to find accurate information about them. My hope is that this guide will answer any questions you have and be a useful tool while you navigate your ballot, especially as a first time voter.

My team and I here at the Urban League of Metropolitan Seattle thank you for reclaiming your right to vote! Whether it’s your first time casting a ballot or your first time voting in a while, your vote is your voice and soon, we’ll need your input!

Happy 2020 Elections!

Questions That Need Answers
FROM FIRST TIME VOTERS

1. Who can register to vote?
   In the state of Washington you must be:
   - A United States citizen
   - A legal resident for at least 30 days prior to Election Day
   - At least 18 years old by Election Day
   - Not disqualified from voting due to a court

2. Where can I register to vote?
   In WA you can register to vote:
   - Online: via votewa.gov
   - By Mail: with a WA State Voter Registration Form
   - In Person: at the county’s Election’s office or voting center

3. What do I need to bring to vote?
   To register by mail or in person, you will need either your driver’s license or last four digits of your social security number. To register online, you will need your driver’s license or state ID.

4. How do I vote?
   Option 1: By mail! WA State is a mail-in ballot which means every registered voter will receive a ballot in their mailbox approximately 18 days before the election. The ballot can be mailed back with no stamp required or in a drop box. If you lose it or mess up, you can get a replacement ballot from votewa.gov

   Option 2: In person! Each county has voting centers available to vote in person. To find the closest one to you, go to votewa.gov or your county Election’s office website. Voting centers are opened 18 days before election.

5. Can I vote if I have a criminal history?
   Convicted felons in WA have their right to vote restored once they complete their sentence and are no longer in prison or community custody with the Department of Corrections (DOC). Once the right to vote is restored, the person must re-register to vote in order to receive a ballot.
   (If the felony conviction is from another state or in federal court, the right to vote is restored as long as the person is not currently incarcerated for that felony.)

6. What is the Future Voter program?
   16 and 17 year-olds can pre-register to vote and be automatically registered when they turn 18. Pre-registration can either be done online with a state ID or Driver’s License, or by mail if they do not have an ID.

"Elections aren't just about who votes but who doesn't vote." - Michelle Obama
Once you’ve registered, your next step is to research candidates on the ballot so you can make the best decisions on election day. There are three key ways to find out who is on your ballot, what experiences they have and what policies, programs or community concerns they support:

- County Voter Guide

  Each county has an available voter guide in which candidates answer basic questions about themselves and why they are running for office. The voter guide also includes a photo and relevant information about the candidate’s background. In some counties the voter guide is mailed out, so check your mailbox often! If you don’t get a copy in the mail, you can always access your county voter guide online through the county elections website!

- Candidate’s Website or Social Media

  Impacts from the pandemic, including a surge of virtual-only engagement, has encouraged many candidates to connect with potential voters by building their own websites and using social media platforms. Following candidates online will give you more insight to their stance on important policies and who they are as people! It also makes it easier to track candidates throughout the election cycle.

- Third Party Websites and Scorecards

  Many organizations have scorecards, candidate forums, and websites available to help highlight each candidate and provide their political track records. This is a useful way to find out more about a candidate. Just keep in mind that the websites may be biased depending on who/what party is running it.

"Talk is cheap, voting is free; take it to the polls." - Nanette L. Avery
